

Abigail Sheppard began her professional ballet training at the age of 11 with Canada's National Ballet School. After graduating from the prestigious school, she moved to Amsterdam to study with the Dutch National Ballet Academy and perform with the Dutch National Ballet. In 2012, she accepted a job with the Estonian National Ballet, and was promoted to soloist in the spring of 2015. Since the fall of 2015, Abigail has been a dancer with the Finnish National Ballet. Her repertoire includes Swanilda "Coppelia", Olga "Onegin", the Snow Queen "The Nutcracker", Shade soloist "La Bayadere", as well as leading roles in works by Nacho Duato, Wayne McGregor, Marco Goecke, and Alexander Ekman, among others. This is Abigail's first time performing with Davidsson Organ and Dance Collaborative.
